

Buses & Coaches inside the enclosures at Epsom

The Derby Festival combines fun, fashion and truly memorable racing. For many it is an annual pilgrimage to witness top class horses and jockeys battle it out. A key part of the Derby Day experience is the sight of the vintage buses lining the course. All enclosures have fantastic views of the track, betting facilities, catering outlets and a party atmosphere.

The Lonsdale Enclosure

This popular, yet exclusive enclosure is located right opposite the Queen's Stand and is adjacent to the winning post. Space is strictly limited and on Derby Day only Open Top double-deck buses are admitted within, though on Ladies Day Closed Top double-deck buses may be accommodated too. With excellent views to the Royal Box and the winning line, this enclosure is much sought after!

The Upper Tattenham Enclosure

Stretching from the grandstands towards the famous Tattenham Corner, this spacious enclosure accommodates all types of double-deck buses and coaches. There's always a great atmosphere, excellent facilities and great views of the racing and across to the downs.
